Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad 2012-02-29 Dark allegory of a journey up the Congo River and the narrator's encounter with the mysterious Mr. Kurtz. Masterly blend of adventure, character study, psychological penetration. For many, Conrad's finest, most enigmatic story.

Heart of Darkness and Other Tales Joseph Conrad 1990 Set in an atmosphere of mystery and menace, Joseph Conrad's 'Heart of Darkness' tells the story of Marlow's journey up the Congo River to meet the remarkable Mr. Kurtz. It reveals Conrad at the height of his powers as a writer of great vividness, intensity, and sophistication. 'An Outpost of Progress' is also set in central Africa and offers a fiercely sardonic view of European imperialism. 'Karain', with its Malaysian setting, questions conventional ideas of the contrasts between races. 'Youth' is a largely autobiographical account of an ill-fated voyage in which Marlow makes his first appearance. The four tales variously appraise the glamour, folly and rapacity of imperial adventure. Intro. and Notes by Cedric Watts. Biblio. Chronology. Glossary.

Figurative language contrasts civilization with the power of prehistoric nature ("the forest stepped leisurely across the water." "the woods looked with their air of hidden knowledge"). Prayer Is Power Patricia Zimmermann 2008-12 Prayer is Power serves as your guide in understanding the Word of God and how to use the passages from the Bible, which are essential in delivering powerful prayers. It provides instructions on how to effectively communicate and build a one-on-one relationship with God and how simple prayers can release God's supernatural powers to solve problems that are beyond human ability. This book has sample prayers, which you can use to unlock God's power. It also guides you on how to come under his authority to gain the power you need to heal the sick, cast out evil spirits, and to perform wonders. It guides you on how to deliver prayers more effectively and to rely on the Holy Spirit as your guide and allow him to intercede on your behalf, for God loves you and wants to answer your prayers. Patricia Zimmermann, MBA, author, suffered a great deal in the loss of her one and only child in a car accident. For twenty years she was unable to talk about her loss until she found comfort in God's presence. It wasn't until she accepted Jesus Christ in her heart and became filled with the Holy Ghost that she began to receive healing from him. Jesus began to heal the deep-seated wound in her heart so she can begin to live again. The Word of God gave her the full assurance that her daughter is safe with Jesus up in heaven. But most of all she learned that Prayer has the Power to heal.

Re-reading Pío Baroja and English Literature Katharine Murphy 2004 This volume investigates a broad range of structural connections between Pío Baroja's early fiction and the novels of his contemporaries in England and Ireland, with prominence given to Joseph Conrad, Thomas Hardy, E. M. Forster and James Joyce. Starting from the premise that Spain has been neglected in studies which assess the evolution of the European novel at the turn of the twentieth century, and challenging the insular concept of the 'Generation of 1898', the author reassesses the relationship between Baroja and English literature. Particular emphasis is given to renderings of consciousness, the role and identity of the artist, European landscapes, and questions of form, genre and representation in the novels under scrutiny. The book produces new readings of Baroja in the context of early twentieth-century English fiction.

Postcolonial Conrad Terry Collits 2006-09-27 Winner of the 2006 NSW Prize for Literary Scholarship. The work of Joseph Conrad has been read so disparately that it is tempting to talk of many different Conrads. One lasting impression however, is that his colonial novels, which record encounters between Europe and Europe's 'Other', are highly significant for the field of post-colonial studies. Drawing on many years of research and a rich body of criticism, Postcolonial Conrad not only presents fresh readings of his novels of imperialism, but also maps and analyzes the interpretative tradition they have generated. Terry Collits first examines the reception of the author's work in terms of the history of ideas, literary criticism, traditions of 'Englishness', Marxism and post-colonialism, before re-reading Heart of Darkness, Lord Jim, Nostromo and Victory in greater depth. Collits' incisive and wide-ranging volume provides a much needed reconsideration of more than a century of criticism, discussing the many different perspectives born of constantly shifting contexts. Most importantly though, the book encourages and equips us for twenty-first criticism, where we must ask anew how we might read and understand these crucial and fascinating novels.
